

Rebus Intl is the exclusive agent for mask production machinery for USA & Canada

Rebus Intl Inc. joins hands with DM Packaging Group as the exclusive agents for their FFP2/FFP3 mask producing machine Taurus. Rebus has gained exclusive rights in USA & CANADA.

Taurus mask making machine has a plant productivity of 3000 masks per hour and with a two-shift daily productivity can go up to 48000 masks per day.

Technical Specifications

- Automatic connection with Flow pack Packaging machine
- Sanitization module with UVC rays
- Machine control and management through PLC + HMI Touch screen 10" Panel
- Ultrasonic system welders
- Axes management through nr.7 Brushless servomotors by Schneider Electric Brand
- Material unwinding system by motorized reelholder with 6 AC motors and managed by inverter
- Rotary laces welding system, managed by two stepper motors with digital encoder and digital drive management system
- Automatic parts counting function
- Possibility to integrate in the line automatic filter insertion (optional)
- System complies with CE regulations
- Contact zones stainless steel masks
- Electrical panel in compliance with standards, with safety modules for the management of guards